Protection Based Passive Income Government Bonds: This is the most basic form of protection based Passive income. Specifically, protection based passive income means you're only protecting the principal values (more or less). If you generate a low single digit yield of 3-4% or so, you're essentially getting nothing back once the year is done.

The Best Forms of Passive and Semi-Passive Income
Passive income, at its simplest, is earned without the active participation of the person bringing in the money. This doesn't mean it comes without effort entirely. But, after putting in most of your work upfront, you can largely sit back and enjoy the fruits of your labor. There are a lot of ways to go about generating passive income but a few stand out as particularly effective.
